Theme: Socially Responsible Operations

About the Conference

Production and Operations Management Society (POMS) is an international professional organization representing the interests of POM professionals from around the world. The purposes of the Society are:

Éto extend and integrate knowledge that contributes to the improved understanding and practice of production and operations management (POM);

Éto disseminate information on POM to managers, scientists, educators, students, public and private organizations, national and local governments, and the general public; and

Éto promote the improvement of POM and its teaching in public and private manufacturing and service organizations throughout the world

The society's web page may be found at: <http://www.poms.org/>

The purpose of the conference is to share academic research through a series of paper presentations. Thus, the majority of participants are faculty at colleges and universities.

About our Venue in Chicago

Our conference hotel is the Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile located in the heart of Chicago, Illinois, U.S.A. The hotel is magnificently situated amongst world-class shopping and dining. It is within walking distance of top attractions including the Navy Pier, American Girl Place, Shedd Aquarium, Millennium Park, Theater and Museum Districts.

The Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile is a contemporary 46 floor hotel with 1,173 rooms, 25 suites, and various eating options including the Rush Bar & Lounge, the Harvest Restaurant, and the Starbucks Coffee House.

Who May Participate
