DECISION SCIENCES FACULTY POSITION
2020-2021
H. WAYNE HUIZENGA COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP
NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY
FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA

POSITION: Position is available starting August 2021 to teach undergraduate and graduate courses (on ground and online) in the Decision Sciences Department. Rank will be dependent on qualifications. Preference will be given to candidates teaching courses in management of information systems, operations management, data analytics, health economics, or population health. Professional experience in the health and/or healthcare industry is preferred, but not required.

JOB RESPONSIBILITY: Nova Southeastern University (NSU) emphasizes teaching, research and service. Candidates must have a commitment to research in business disciplines that leads to quality refereed publications and documented success in teaching (on ground and online).

THE COLLEGE: The H. Wayne Huizenga College of Business and Entrepreneurship is housed in a five-story, state-of-the-art facility on Nova Southeastern University’s main campus in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Faculty members comprise some of the best minds and most dedicated professionals in the industry. Their extensive experience in both the academic and business realms make them sought after as consultants in industry, government, and the nonprofit sector. Having worked with and studied under Nobel Prize winners, authored textbooks that are utilized in collegiate classrooms throughout the world, owned and managed corporations, and attained renowned status within their disciplines, our faculty bring dynamic, experientially global perspectives to the classroom, providing the support and guidance necessary for academic success.

THE UNIVERSITY: Nova Southeastern University (NSU) is a private, selective research institution of higher learning dedicated to providing high-quality educational programs at the undergraduate, graduate, and first-professional degree levels with over 23,000 students. NSU’s colleges include business, law, education, engineering and computing, osteopathic medicine, arts, humanities, and social sciences, psychology, natural sciences, oceanography, dentistry, optometry, pharmacy and nursing.

For more than 50 years, NSU has been awarding degrees in a wide range of fields, while fostering groundbreaking research and an impactful commitment to community. Classified as a research university with “high research activity” by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, NSU is 1 of only 50 universities nationwide to also be awarded Carnegie’s Community Engagement Classification, and is also the largest private, not-for-profit institution in the United States that meets the U.S. Department of Education's criteria as a Hispanic-serving Institution.

APPLICATION: Applications must be submitted online at http://nsucareers.nova.edu to position #993612. Please submit a cover letter addressing your qualifications and teaching interests, curriculum vita, evidence of teaching excellence, unofficial transcript, and a list of three or more references.
