SCM Non-Tenure Track Open Rank Position at Northeastern University

Positions Description
The Supply Chain and Information Management Group of the D’Amore-McKim School of Business at Northeastern University in Boston invites applications for open non-tenure track position in the Group, with employment beginning in 2021-2022. This is a full-time, benefits-eligible position that may be Teaching Professor/ Visiting Teaching Professor/ Visiting Assistant Professor/ or Visiting Associate Professor. Employment terms are competitive and negotiable depending on career progress and expertise. Support for research is available. Primary teaching responsibilities will be operations and supply chain management courses in both undergraduate and graduate programs.

Qualifications
Candidates must have a doctorate degree in operations management, supply chain management, or a closely related field by the appointment start date. Candidates must be committed to excellence in teaching. Those with prior experience teaching operations/supply chain management courses will be preferred.

How to apply
Applicants should submit materials including a letter of interest, vita, teaching evaluations, and letters of reference using the Northeastern University application portal at the following address: https://careers.hrm.northeastern.edu/en-us/job/504313/lecturervisiting-lecturerteaching-professorvisiting-teaching-professorvisiting-professorall-ranks. Inquiries may be directed to Professor Gilbert Nyaga, Group Chair at g.nyaga@northeastern.edu. Additional information regarding the School and the Supply Chain and Information Management Group can be found at www.damore-mckim.northeastern.edu.

Diversity
Candidates should be committed to fostering diverse and inclusive environments as well as to promoting experiential learning, which are central to a Northeastern University Education. Northeastern University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Educational Institution and Employer, Title IX University. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by the law. Northeastern University is an E-Verify Employer.