

Joint tenure-track position in Supply Chain and Healthcare Information Technology at Northeastern University

About the Opportunity

The D'Amore-McKim School of Business (DMSB) and Bouvé College of Health Sciences (BCHS) at Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts invite applications for a joint tenure-track or tenured appointment in any rank (Assistant/Associate/Full professor) starting in Fall 2025. We are seeking outstanding faculty with expertise in Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Healthcare Information Technology. The successful candidate will have a primary appointment in the Supply Chain and Information Management (SCIM) Group in DMSB and depending on the candidate's research and teaching interests, they will have a secondary appointment in either the Department of Pharmacy and Health Systems Sciences (DPHSS) or School of Nursing (SON) in Bouvé College. The position will primarily be on the Boston campus but there is also a possibility of affiliations at other campuses within the Northeastern University global network.

This interdisciplinary appointment brings an unparalleled opportunity to join a dynamic research environment that values effective collaborations across disciplines. The candidate's research area should be clearly aligned with an AI and healthcare information technology focus. The hired candidate's responsibilities include, but are not limited to, conducting high-quality interdisciplinary research, teaching courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels, supporting current and planned education and accredited professional programs, and participating in service to the University, its colleges and departments, and the candidate's professional discipline.

Qualifications:

Candidates are expected to hold an earned doctorate in Information Systems/Management, Healthcare Management/Systems, Operations/Supply Chain Management, or a closely related field by the employment start date. Academic rank at the Associate Professor and Full Professor levels will be commensurate with experience and qualifications reflecting a record of demonstrated teaching and scholarly excellence. Candidates must have a commitment to working with diverse student populations and/or in culturally diverse work and educational environments, and to promoting experiential learning, which are central to a Northeastern University education.

How to apply:

Applicants should submit materials including a letter of interest, vita, recent working papers, and teaching evaluations (via NU applications portal). Letters of reference will be requested at a later stage. Applicants should highlight, in the cover letter, how they will support our commitment to fostering a diverse and inclusive environment for faculty, staff, and students (see below). Please direct inquiries to Professor Gilbert Nyaga (g.nyaga@northeastern.edu), Chair, Supply Chain & Information Management Group.

Statement of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging:

Please provide a statement of your commitment and/or contribution(s) that describe your past experience, activities, and/or future plans to advance diversity, equity, inclusion, and the value proposition of belonging in your teaching, research, and service. Your statement should demonstrate an understanding of the barriers facing marginalized communities in your field/community and be in alignment with both Northeastern's mission and BEYOND 2025. A more developed and substantial plan is expected for senior candidates.

About the D'Amore-McKim School of Business:

For over 100 years, the D'Amore-McKim School of Business at Northeastern University has continuously strengthened its foundation of experiential learning and innovation. Today, our mission to enable students to be responsible business leaders of the world capable of working, navigating, and creating in a digital environment is more relevant than ever. We offer unique business-specific and interdisciplinary degree opportunities at the bachelor's and master's levels, and lifelong learners benefit from our graduate-level certificates and executive education portfolio. All of these are enhanced by Northeastern's global campus system and experience-powered education approach. In addition, our use-inspired faculty and their research focus on transformative impact for humankind. Ultimately, D'Amore-McKim's values-driven culture and cross-border approach to learning and research empower our students, faculty, alumni, and corporate partners to create impact far beyond the confines of time, discipline, degree, and campus.

About the Bouvé College of Health Sciences:

The Bouvé College of Health Sciences has over 250 faculty members, with approximately 2,000 undergraduate and 2,400 graduate students. It is the leading national model for education and research in the health, psychosocial, and biomedical sciences and supports the University's mission of educating students for a life of fulfillment and accomplishment and creating and translating knowledge to meet global and societal needs. The College comprises four schools with eight departments: 1) School of Clinical and Rehabilitation Sciences (Departments of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Medical Sciences, and Physical Therapy, Movement and Rehabilitation Sciences); 2) School of Community Health and Behavioral Sciences (Departments of Applied Psychology and Health Sciences); 3) School of Nursing; 4) School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences (Departments of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Pharmacy and Health System Sciences).

Diversity Statement

Northeastern University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Educational Institution and Employer, Title IX University. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, religious creed, genetic information, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, national origin, ancestry, veteran or disability status, or any other characteristic protected by the law. Northeastern University is an E-Verify Employer.