

The Department of Supply Chain Management in the W. P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University is seeking applications from those interested in a Postdoctoral Research Scholar position with an anticipated start date of Fall 2025. This is a fixed-term, fiscal year (twelve months) appointment with no tenure implications.

This position is grant-funded for eighteen (18) months and may be extended for an additional six months, based on satisfactory performance and funding availability.

Expectations/Essential Functions:

- The postdoctoral scholar will be funded by a National Institute for Food and Agriculture (NIFA) grant to study the performance of food supply chains and systems. The postdoctoral scholar will be able to develop his or her own research, and develop other projects with faculty within the SCM department but the primary obligation will be to the NIFA grant objectives.
- We anticipate that the postdoctoral scholar will be an active participant in workshops, conferences and events at W. P. Carey School of Business.

Minimum Qualifications: Applicants must hold a Ph.D. in one of the relevant fields of operations management, supply chain management, economics, or other related areas. Applicant must have the degree conferred before the start date.

Desired Qualifications: 1) Strong writing and presentation skills developed at conferences; 2) skills in advanced quantitative and empirical research methods; and 3) Possession of a research agenda in the areas of food supply chain management, grocery retail operations, or agricultural economics.

Application Deadline and Procedure: The application deadline is March 1, 2025. Applications will continue to be accepted on a rolling basis for a reserve pool. Applications in the reserve pool may then be reviewed in the order they were received until the position is filled. Candidates will be asked to create or use an existing Interfolio Dossier to submit documents. For full consideration, please submit the following at apply.interfolio.com/160354.

1. Cover letter that addresses how you meet the qualifications, your accomplishments, and future plans in research
2. Curriculum vitae
3. Research statement
4. Sample paper
5. List of three references

Please direct inquiries to christa.l.thompson@asu.edu. If you have any further questions about the position, please contact one of the search committee co-chairs Elliot Rabinovich or Timothy Richards via email at elliott.rabinovich@asu.edu or trichards@asu.edu.

The W. P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University is the largest business school in the United States with more than 20,000 students and 120,000+ alumni worldwide. From our world-renowned faculty representing six continents to thousands of outstanding students who join us every year, the W. P. Carey School welcomes inclusive excellence and encourages global thinking. The W. P. Carey School is internationally recognized for its leadership in business education, groundbreaking research and innovation, and renowned faculty, making us one of the top-ranked business schools in the country.

W. P. Carey prides itself on being a place “where business is personal.” Business is personal means that kindness, courtesy, and respect lead our actions. We care for each other and support one another. We’re proud of that commitment, and look forward to it shaping your experience at W. P. Carey. Learn more at wpcarey.asu.edu.

All we do at ASU is guided and inspired by the University Charter, which reads:

ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom it excludes, but by whom it includes and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves.

The W. P. Carey School of Business continually strives to foster a welcoming and inclusive environment.

Successful candidates should include throughout their materials how their teaching, research, and service will contribute to the fulfillment of this charter.

Department of Supply Chain Management. The SCM Department is regularly ranked among the top 5 in the United States at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, and each year graduates approximately 400 students with a BS-SCM, 95 with a BA-Global Logistics, 45 Full-Time MBAs with an SCM concentration, numerous Working Professional MBAs (50+ with a SCM concentration), 58 with a MS-Global Logistics and 230 with a MS-Business Analytics, and 2 to 4 PhD students. The ASU SCM faculty includes over 30 tenured, tenure-track, and clinical professors – among the largest in the United States. Many top researchers visit the department to present their work at regular seminars and conferences. All this translates into high-quality instruction at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. For more information, please see <https://wpcarey.asu.edu/supply-chain-management-degrees>.

ASU Statement. “Arizona State University is a new model for American higher education, an unprecedented combination of academic excellence, entrepreneurial energy and broad access. This New American University is a single, unified institution comprising four differentiated campuses positively impacting the economic, social, cultural and environmental health of the communities it serves. Its research is inspired by real world application blurring the boundaries that traditionally separate academic disciplines. ASU serves more than 70,000 students in metropolitan Phoenix, Arizona, the nation's fifth largest city. ASU champions intellectual and cultural diversity, and welcomes students from all fifty states and more than one hundred nations across the globe.

ASU is a tobacco-free university. For details visit www.asu.edu/tobaccofree

ASU conducts pre-employment screening which may include verification of work history, academic credentials, licenses, and certifications.

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement. Arizona State University is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or any other basis protected by law. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. ASU’s full non-discrimination policy (ACD 401) is located on the ASU website at <http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html> and (<https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/>.)