

Assistant Professor of Operations, Information and Decisions (Tenure Track) 2025-2026

Department of Operations, Information and Decisions

The Wharton School

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

The Operations, Information and Decisions Department of the Wharton School is seeking applicants for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in the areas of information systems or operations management. Our faculty is comprised of scholars with a diverse set of backgrounds and interests, and we encourage applicants with degrees in a business discipline, social sciences, engineering, AI, or computational social science, among others.

Demonstrated ability or potential for high quality research and teaching are important. Applicants must have a Ph.D. (expected completion by June 30, 2027 is acceptable) from an accredited institution. The appointment is expected to begin July 1, 2026.

More information about the Department is available at:
<https://oid.wharton.upenn.edu/>

Interested individuals should complete and submit an online application via our secure website, and must include:

- A curriculum vitae
- A job market or other sample paper
- Names of three recommenders, including email addresses

Additional materials or information will be requested as needed.

To apply, please visit this web site: apply.interfolio.com/175700

To ensure full consideration, materials should be submitted by November 1, 2025.
