PROFESSOR IN SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

Assistant/Associate Professor

Neeley School of Business, Texas Christian University

Texas Christian University invites applications for a Professor in Supply Chain Management (Assistant or Associate rank) in the Neeley School of Business beginning August 2026.

Description

The Information Systems & Supply Chain Management Department at Neeley includes a vibrant mix of scholars who also embrace teaching and student interaction. We offer undergraduate majors in Business Information Systems and in Supply & Value Chain Management, as well as graduate programs in Supply Chain Management and Business Analytics. The Center for Supply Chain Innovation promotes research collaborations with the many Fortune 500 companies in the DFW area.

We are seeking individuals with a desire to pursue innovative research programs that can be leveraged to enhance managerial practice, as well as undergraduate and graduate education. Preference will be given to candidates who provide evidence of success or strong potential for research publications and excellence in teaching. Relevant industry experience is beneficial. Candidates for the position should possess a Ph.D. in Supply Chain Management, Operations Management, or a related field. Candidates who are ABD must obtain their Ph.D. prior to appointment. We are also open to experienced Assistant Professors. The teaching load and salary are competitive and commensurate with qualifications. Preference will be given to candidates who apply before October 1st.
