Open-Rank Professor in Supply Chain Management
Department of Supply Chain & Information Systems (SCIS)
Smeal College of Business

The Supply Chain & Information Systems (SCIS) Department of the Smeal College of Business at The Pennsylvania State University (University Park, PA) invites applications for an open rank, tenure-track position in Supply Chain & Information Systems for a Fall 2026 start date. Salary is competitive.

Candidates at all ranks must have a PhD degree by the appointment start date in supply chain management or related field. A strong commitment to research and teaching excellence is expected. Rank will be commensurate with experience. Assistant Professors should show strong research potential and teaching promise. Associate Professors should have a record of high-quality publications and demonstrated teaching excellence. Full Professors should have a distinguished research record, recognized scholarly leadership, and evidence of teaching and mentoring excellence. Faculty members are expected to maintain an active research program, perform undergraduate and graduate teaching, supervise graduate students, and engage in service activities. Onsite teaching is an essential function of this position.

The SCIS Department comprises a vibrant, research-active faculty with research and teaching interests that traverse the end-to-end supply chain and includes business logistics, sourcing, manufacturing, and service operations. The department offers degree programs in supply chain management, management information systems, and business analytics. We seek outstanding candidates with expertise in supply chain management with an emphasis in technology management that would complement the faculty with high-quality research and teaching in student-centered and collaborative learning environments.

The Smeal College of Business offers a collegial working environment and excellent campus facilities. It has the Center for Supply Chain Research® (www.smeal.psu.edu/cscr) which advances cutting-edge research and outreach in supply chain management. The SC&IS Department (www.smeal.psu.edu/scis) also has strong connections with the business community through various research centers that provide opportunities to interface with faculty across various disciplines within Smeal and across Penn State. For more information, please visit www.smeal.psu.edu/research-centers.

Review of applications will begin approximately October 31, 2025 and will continue until the position is filled. For further information, please contact Autumn Hanley at adh5253@psu.edu.

Applicants should upload a letter of intent, a statement of research and teaching, and a CV. Contact information for three references also should be provided.

CAMPUS SECURITY CRIME STATISTICS: The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act and Pennsylvania Act of 1988 require that crime statistics for Pennsylvania colleges and universities be made available to applicants upon request. Penn State's combined Annual Security and Annual Fire Safety Report includes statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus buildings owned or controlled by the University, and on public property within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. The report also includes institutional policies concerning campus security, such as those concerning alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault, and other matters. You may obtain this information for the Penn State campus to which you are applying by accessing the website at www.police.psu.edu/annual-security-reports/. A printed copy of the report may be obtained by writing to University Police & Public Safety, The Pennsylvania State University, 161 University Support Building I, University Park, PA 16802 or by calling 814-863-1273.
